Summary of reasons for decision:

The image file is a highly sexualised image of a naked girl who is posed to display her genitals to the viewer in an overtly sexually inviting manner. It has likely been orchestrated by an unseen adult. It is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. The image can only be for the titillation and arousal of those with a prurient interest in young girls. It presents them as appropriate and available subjects for adult sexual fantasy and desire. It has the effect of encouraging and legitimising this idea. As an image file it can be shared widely among like-minded individuals. The image may also be used for the purpose of grooming children for sexual exploitation. The Classification Office has considered the effects of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 on the application of the classification criteria. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression, but this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications that promote and support the exploitation of children for sexual purposes be deemed objectionable.
